APPEAL

The entire country is deeply aggrieved by the havoc caused in Kedarnath Temple and in its surrounding area in Uttarakhand by flash floods and rain. This natural calamity has caused extreme damages to the lives and properties and thousands of people have become homeless. The Central Government, State Governments and many social organizations are extending their helps to the people of Kedarnath and surrounding areas in Uttarakhand.

Banaras Hindu University has been active for the cause of helping needy people in such natural disasters. The Vice-Chancellor has desired that the University community may also come forward to help the affected people by contributing one day's salary for this noble cause.

Accordingly, as per orders, an appeal is hereby made to the University community to come forward to help the people by donating their one day's salary to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund. The deductions shall be made from the salary bill of June, 2013 by the Finance Office and Bank Draft will be sent to Prime Minister's National Relief Fund accordingly.

Those teaching and non-teaching employees who are not willing to contribute one day's salary may immediately give their refusal in writing to his/ her Head of the Department/Office, failing which it will be presumed that they agree for above contribution.
