NOTIFICATION

The following decisions of the Committee consisting of the Rector, Directors of the Institutes, Deans of the Faculties, Co-ordinator of Hostels, Dean of Students, Chief Proctor and others Senior Officers of the University under the Chairmanship of the Vice-Chancellor, taken in its meeting held today, the 22nd March, 2021 to review the situation of teaching-learning of students in the classes and their stay in hostels of the University, in the light of rising cases of Covid-19 positive students in the hostels and the increasing number of Covid-19 positive cases in the Hospital, are hereby notified to all concerned for implementation with immediate effect.

1. The Holi holidays for students shall commence from 23rd March, 2021. The offline classes will remain suspended till further notice.
2. All the classes of the students will be held in the online mode only as per schedule till further notice irrespective of preponment of the Holi holidays.
3. There shall not be any 'Milan Samaroh' or gathering on the Campus including in the hostels.
4. Cases of Covid are rising every day and if the present trend continues it is likely that cases may rise even more in the coming days. Hence, in the interest of safety of the students they are encouraged to go to their homes and leave the hostels by taking their books and study materials with them so that in the event of worsening of the situation they may continue their studies through online classes to be conducted by the concerned teachers and take the examination which may be conducted in the online mode, if the situation so demands.
5. The situation will be reviewed in the first week of April, 2021 and decision will be notified on University's Website and Press Media. The students may make their plans accordingly.
6. Parents/guardians of the students shall also be informed of the aforesaid.
7. The offices and other functions of the University shall continue as per schedule.
8. Faculty members shall perform their duties as usual.
